bakers chocolate | cedar | black strap molasses

Born in the marina, a dark bustling sea port, it is early morning, the commercial fishing vessels are leaving heading for open waters, the hard working sailors are prepping for the day's work anticipating a good catch. They need coffee. Not just any coffee. But coffee with an intensity that matches life on the water, hard physical labor, long hours, short nights, a commercial fisherman's life. This brew is not for the faint of heart! It takes a man to down this coffee. And it kicks butt like bronc rider! If you need a jolt, something to get your day started, try this coffee if you dare! Dark roasted, intensity off the charts, bakers chocolate, aromatic cedar, black strap molasses. If this coffee don't kick your butt, ain't nothin gonna do it... It's the real deal!
