Looking for a daily brew with soul? Our Happy Farmhouse blend combines Latin American beans to create a smooth creamy delightful cup. It's a light tasting cup of complexity with nuance of maple syrup sweet cocoa mix, and almond with just a hint of nutmeg and dried fruit, comforting without being predictable. Imagine a kitchen where the scent of cocoa and spices drifts through the air, where stories are shared and the coffee pot never runs dry. That's the feeling we've captured with Happy Farmhouse. Full-bodied and friendly, this cup feels like a warm hug from home, just the way coffee should be. It is a return to the familiar, a nod to slow mornings, shared stories, and steaming mugs that warm both hands and hearts. It's not just a coffee, it is a feeling...
